Mission Statement

Sacred Nation is a religious publication intended to reach incarcerated brethren of the Anglo-Saxon, Caucasian, Slavic, Lombard and related peoples -- who are the Lost Sheep of the House of Israel.

Sacred Nation is a Christian Identity publication which promotes positive Christianity and pro-white unity.

The opinions of the authors are strictly theirs and not necessarily those of this ministry.

~ Forward by Pastor Allen Truitt ~

Greetings Kindred! Welcome to another issue of Sacred Nation.

A lot has changed since the last issue of Sacred Nation. Some decisions I have made will cause some of you distress, but Yahweh leads His children where He will, and sometimes decisions are for the best even though we don't see it that way at the time.

First, and most importantly, I have resigned as the National Director for the Church of Jesus Christ Christian-AN. I will no longer be handling prisoner affairs for the church, and this includes granting memberships. That duty will now fall to General Ryan Mullins at P.O. Box 2205, Antioch, TN 37011. I will be forwarding all pending applications to him as well as helping to acclimate him to the process.

I hope that you will understand. I can no longer work with Gulett. He was told directly by the feds that my phone calls were being recorded. As National Director for the AN, I spoke with many, many people on a daily basis, including Gulett, yet he never told me that my phone calls were being recorded. He testified before a grand jury ostensibly to give testimony about an email I allegedly sent threatening someone's life. The only problem is I never wrote that email and the IP address (where the email originated) was from the Russian Federation. He had proof of this to take with him to the grand jury, but never gave it to the actual jury...He gave it to the feds! The very people who were trying to frame me! Evidently, Gulett has some faith in the feds doing the right thing. Finally, after having testified before the grand jury, he comes home to tell me that my phone calls are being recorded. When I asked him how he knew this, he said they told him months ago when they visited his house but he couldn't tell me about it until he had fulfilled his "duty" to the feds. So, the "world leader" of the world's most feared and renowned white supremacist movement is actually a muzzled lamb. Once I found out that my phone calls were being recorded, I stopped talking on the phone altogether. Gulett got mad and said I wasn't doing my job (I guess he wanted me to continue doing business as usual with my phone calls being recorded). I refused, then resigned. Since I cannot trust this character, I can no longer be a part of the group he leads. What's more, I highly suggest that you stay far away from him and his group.

Now, letters are being sent out to prisoners accusing me of having "un-Aryan" conduct. I suppose refusing to work with a compromised leader is un-Aryan. You decide. I have led the nation's prison ministry for a number of years, and though it is a daunting task, I have always enjoyed serving you men. It is my understanding that letters are being sent out to you men asking you to send in your personal information. The letter is official looking with Cynthia Keene's name, but Gulett's address. If you have sent in your information, or a copy of your card, you have put yourself at risk. If anyone has a card that is not signed by me or Ryan Mullins, that card is a forgery. Please send ALL questions regarding the Church of Jesus Christ Christian to General Mullins from now on.

One very important thing you should all know: Richard Butler set up the Aryan Nations as an organism. He said "The whole thrust of the Aryan Nations movement is NOT just to be an organization, but aims to be an ORGANISM. i.e., a structure of our racial kindred so integrated that their relation to one another is governed by their relation to the whole..." The Aryan Nations is made up of individuals within the organism, which is us. There is no governor, or so-called "world leader" imposing their will on us. We live by the code of Aryan honor, and when one of us violates this code, they are set apart. I have always acted as the caretaker of the prison ministry, acting on your behalf. I never micro-managed your congregations or imposed any authority on you. Morris Gulett was released from fed prison and declared himself "world leader" of the Aryan Nations. No-one assigned him such a grand title, no-one appointed it to him and, in fact, he has no right to it. The only thing he owns is websites. That's a far shot from qualifying for world leader. This man has proven himself to be untrustworthy by his actions. He has no business being IN the Aryan Nations, much less calling himself the world leader. I know that letters have been sent out to many of you asking you to send in your information (by Cynthia Keene), and I strongly suggest that you do NOT send any information. For your own security.

Morris Gulett, who I now call pastor SANBOG, has assigned Cynthia Keene to deal with prisoner affairs. While I know Cynthia, I do not support this move on his part because it was done with no consultation with me, and no records were requested – which leads me to believe that that particular group has no intention of following through with the established system of awarding memberships. If you choose to follow this move by Gulett, we will regress 20 years to the point where anyone who receives literature or writes in can claim to be Church of Jesus Christ Christian. We were there 20 years ago, and I can tell you that it caused a lot of trouble within the nation's prison system. There were homos and mongrels all claiming to be members, and it almost ruined the good name of the church. It took a lot of work to re-establish our good name and flush out the frauds. The system I established with congregations and membership cards ensures that those who claim to be members are true Identists who understand that we are the cream of the crop and live accordingly. Ryan Mullins has been where you are, understands the system and the battles that each of you face on a daily basis and is abundantly qualified to do the job.

There are other very serious reasons why I chose to separate myself from this group, but for now I will not discuss these things. I ask that you men trust me and let Ryan Mullins know that you appreciate his sacrifice on your behalf.

I will now focus on Sacred Nation ministries and continue to be involved in on-the-ground activism, only now I will do so as Pastor Truitt from Sacred Nation ministries. This newsletter will continue and probably more frequently now that I am not spending thousands of dollars on rallies for the AN.

I remain, and will always remain, an AN member, though not serving any faction-and there are several. I knew and admired Pastor Butler and his vision for our kindred and will continue to live those principles in my life. Pastor Butler said, "Christianity for the Aryan is Race and Race is Christianity," and I will continue to be a living demonstration of that paradigm.

Now, this issue of Sacred Nation has many great articles by gifted men. We hope you will enjoy it and hopefully gain some insight into the way we, as Identists, are supposed to live and represent ourselves as we walk among the heathen.

I still welcome your letters, though you must remember that I literally receive hundreds of letters per month and cannot always answer them. In addition to Sacred Nation, I have a family and work.

Yahweh bless each and every one of you!

For God, Race and Nation!

A Tribute to the Saints and Soldiers of Yahweh — by Brother Chad Bouman, Terre Haute, IN

May Yahweh's Holy Name and Kingdom be praised and exalted by His Aryan/Anglo-Saxon people. Amen!

It is an honor to be within the Congregation of Israel and to take up my place in Yahweh's Will. What I am going to present to you is a short essay of how I was called and chosen for the service of God and country.

I grew up much like any average Aryan child – born to a White family in a White neighborhood. I was likable. I respected my elders and would often visit the elderly from my neighborhood.

As I grew into the more impressionable years, I began to grow in a multicultural society – espoused by the public school system and Hollywood where I was being pumped full of multicultural lifestyles and thought. Therefore, I grew up the same way most of my generation has. As a result, I participated in a variety of negative activities which corrupted my thinking – setting me on the path to destruction.

Although not completely destroyed, it cost me a 20-year sentence in a federal prison, but this experience turned out to be a wake up call.

I've always been a believer. I was raised to be one. I've always called out to Yahweh for deliverance, and He has always responded accordingly. I never knew there was a plan...until now.

During my incarceration, I began to evaluate myself in light of my spiritual walk and where I was headed. I began to receive revelations and confirmations as Yahweh began to lead me to the Way. I diligently prayed for knowledge, wisdom, and understanding. I'd pray for His guidance, and I would pray to serve a purpose to His Will. Among these prayers was one other: that I would locate the Saints.

Soon, I was surrounded by senior elders who began teaching me about values, morals, and principles. They taught me about the founding of America, self-government, and our heritage and culture.

Among these elders who helped mold my character and perceptions was a 70-year-old man named Ray Lampley. Ray was an old-timer, born July 25, 1930 in Fontain, Arkansas, who served in the Korean War with Company G, 7th Infantry Regiment, of the 3rd Division. Later, he was assigned to the 622nd Military Police and served for 11½ years.

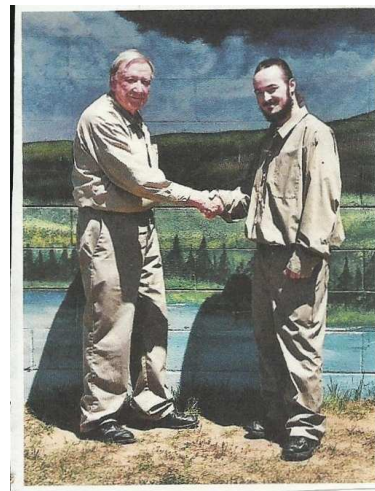

Later in life, he left the corps to minister. He began as a Southern Baptist and picked up on the Worldwide Church of God where he learned many truths. It was during this era when he met many prominent ministers from far and near. Soon, he started his own church and militia for the Southern Oklahoma and northern Texas areas called Oklahoma Constitutional Militia and the Universal Church of God – later named Global Church of Yahweh.

However, in November 1995, Ray and several of his members were arrested and imprisoned after being infiltrated by an FBI informant who alleged that Ray and his members were meeting with Aryan leaders and supremacists, including Timothy McVeigh, in Elohim City, Oklahoma, making plans to bomb the ADL, ACLU, SPLC, and various abortion clinics and gay bars. No evidence was provided to these allegations, except for the paid informant-agent provocateurs' testimony.

Ray and I met early on in my incarceration. Not surprisingly, most of the "white" guys (I emphasize "white" because of how these particular guys portray themselves) kept trying to persuade me from talking to Ray because he was supposedly a "conspiracy theorist" or "nut." The fact was he had so much knowledge and intelligence that most folks couldn't grasp his intellect. This is a common response from ill-informed people who can't see past the trees for the forest and who don't understand those who are more educated than themselves. Furthermore, Ray kept things straight-forward and would tell it like it is – no matter whose feelings it may have hurt. I paid no attention to the snickery of those who knew nothing about anything worthwhile themselves, and proceeded to accompany Ray.

Ray and I spent many years together talking and exchanging material and ideas. He introduced me to good folks across America and to pro-American and Christian newspapers, newsletters, magazines and books. Among them were the Idaho Observer (Don Hawkins and Ingri Cassel), the Aid & Abet Police & Military Newsletter (Jack McLamb, Rick Dalton, and Carol Asher), the Jubilee, America's Bulletin, Media Bypass, Last Trumpet Ministries (Pastor David J. Meyer), Power of Prophecy (Texe Marrs), and many others.

Ray was a true Christian American Patriot and suffered for it under the ZOG system.

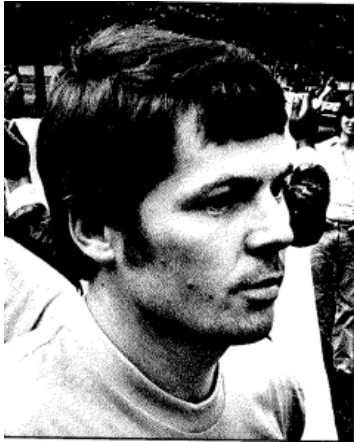

Ray Lampley and Chad Bouman

Another mentor to mention is Randy Duey. Randy came across the movement through the John Birch Society. He was a law-abiding citizen and was employed as a mailman for the postal service. Later, he became a member of Pastor Richard Butler's Aryan Nations in Hayden Lake, Idaho. Pastor Butler's trust for Randy placed him in a security position where he would faithfully and loyally protect the compound and check out attendees' backgrounds for potential recruits or reluctant informants who might have been spying for ZOG.

During Randy's participation at Aryan Nations, he came across other like-minded men who wanted to do more for the cause. Therefore, a band of Aryan Nations' members formed The Order, whose leading member was Robert Jay Mathews – R.I.P Brother!

Robert Jay Mathews

This next excerpt is written from Randy's own hand and submitted to me originally for my profile for The White Knight:

"The Order's mission depended on who you talked to, as we were all independent thinkers. But, we came together on a number of things. We believed that something needed to be done and that we were young, committed and available and so it was logical that we do it. We had a commitment to preserve the purity of our race and improve the quality of life for the average white American. Opposition to most everything the U.S. government did was common among Order members.

There are no revolutionary schools or training centers at the disposal of those desiring change. With so much to be done, it's not surprising that The Order lacked a specific program. But what really broke the back of The Order was the expense of fighting what was, essentially, a war. The only way to make enough money was to steal it, which none of us had any experience at. We robbed three armored cars, and, in so doing, attracted lots of federal attention, which eventually did us in. The first big arrests were made on Whidbey Island, where Robert Mathews was killed on December 8, 1984."

Randy now sees the problem as one of human nature and numbers – there are now, and always will be, many more bad people than good, and this fact guarantees that the majority will always be in control. There are no new frontiers to escape to.

Randy shares common ground values, principles, and interests toward the independence of his nation and the preservation of his race. He, too, is a true Christian American patriot.

Randy and I met early on in my adjustment to federal prison. He, like Ray, introduced me to nationalism and pro-American Christian newspapers and newsletters. Among those were American Free Press, The Barnes Review, American Christian Ministries (Pastor Ben Williams), The National Alliance, the Hoskins Report (Pastor Richard Kelly Hoskins), and Michael Hoffman II's Independent History & Research literature.

Randy and I conversed, sat with each other during chow and exchanged material on a regular basis. Let's pray for Randy's release from ZOG's dungeons as he sees his next parole hearing. Amen!

Randy Duey at AN Headquarters

Another noteworthy mentor of mine was an old-timer and farmer named Scott Faul. Scott had a pure hatred and distrust for the government, and rightly so. Scott knows firsthand of how ugly and brutal the beast system is. He was among Yori and Gordon Kahl when the government threatened to seize Gordon's home and farm over his outspoken criticism against government injustice and corruption at the behest of the Freemasonic Order. Like most everyone else in the freedom movement, Gordon was a man of God who took a stand to expose the beast government to his fellow brethren and kindred.

To his dismay, the beast bit back and attempted to kill Gordon and his family. Several U.S. Marshals set off to harass and threaten Gordon and his family. The government decided to assassinate the Kahls. Yori was shot twice before Gordon returned fire killing two U.S. Marshals and injuring three. However, four months later, a hired sniper and federal agent assassinated Gordon. Unsatisfied with this, they proceeded to arrest Yori and Scott, who are now serving life sentences in the federal system.

Scott Faul

Scott and I were also quickly acquainted after my arrival. He and I shared a dislike for the freemasonic order and discussed many conspiracies and atrocities the freemasons and their cohorts have committed and continue to commit against unsuspecting Americans. This country's governmental structure was, and is, built upon freemasonic doctrine and design. But the real damage didn't start taking place until the time of the Civil War and its aftermath. Moreover, just about every cop, prison guard, judge, prosecutor, lawyer, and other such government figures are loyal members of the Luciferian Doctrine of Freemasonry.

After years of witnessing the atrocities perpetuated by the U.S. ZOG (i.e. Waco, Ruby Ridge, Kent State, The Order, and many of our racial kindred), I soon woke up to the fact that America was no longer known for Grandma's apple pie, officer friendly, and Mr. Rogers' neighborhood.

This is when I began to realize that there's been a tremendous change to the way things used to be, and it was by no means for the better. I spent a decade getting educated in different disciplines – from religion to politics. The result is what led me to the inception of The White Knight and what shall become of me.

It isn't difficult to see the progressive changes taking place in America against God and country. Take a close look around you: America's streets, neighborhoods, televisions, entertainment industries, billboards and advertisements, crime rates, law enforcement agencies, policies, economics and politics. America is sick, and, like a cancer, its effects are spreading throughout every organ to pollute, destroy, dismantle, and weaken the entire interior structure of the body.

Fortunately, unlike most cancer, there is a remedy. However, the ways at arriving at the cure will include the exercising of mind, body, and spirit. We must fight this head on. Therefore, our resuscitation depends solely upon our effort and desire to live as a race and a people. And this, my friends, is the purpose and plight of our struggle.

We owe these great mentors, Yahweh, and our kindred our selfless sacrifices to bring forth a kingdom delegated to the purity of our race and the holy Saints. It is our promise guaranteed by Yahweh to live separate, holy lives – honoring Yahweh, His Kingdom, and the children thereof.

Let us carry this fight forward as "doers and not hearers only" exemplified to us by scripture and our faithful and loyal martyrs and saints. They died for nothing less and live to tell their testimonies to anyone who would hear.

If your only hope is counting on the next man to take a stand, then you have no place next to our Brethren. For we are all counted to the Call of Duty. Our future rests on this!

Separated Living

— by Brother Anthony Leiweke, Sterling, CO

I want to discuss a word all of us know, but many within our church do not understand: Separated – or better yet, two words, “Living Separated.”

Of course, we as Identity Christians or Separatist Christians fully understand the concept when it comes to separation between the Adamic race and the mongrelized races which act as parasites in our country. I want to address what it means for the individual Identity or Separatist to live in separation.

1 Peter 2:9 states, “But you are a ‘chosen race,’ ‘a royal priesthood, a separated nation,’ ‘a people for possession,’ so that you may speak of the virtues of the One who has called you out of the darkness into His marvelous light.” (A.S.T.)

As a “chosen race, royal priesthood and a separated nation,” we are to live, act and believe the exact way our Master mandates us. There is so much more to this than just the aspect of race. I see so many of our brethren get sucked into that “rabbit hole” that they have scales over their eyes and are blinded to all the other responsibilities we are to adhere to in life as a racially aware, Separatist Christian or Identity Christian.

To be separate, to this Aryan, means to be set aside from all unclean and sinful things; and that means ALL. We cannot pick and choose; we cannot stand on the yard and partake in conversations that revolve around sinful nature, and we cannot entertain mongrelized behavior and still be ambassadors for the Anointed.

Just the other day, a “white boy,” who has “political ink” covering his White skin, was saying how he’d love to have sex with this half-breed mongrel mutt CO, while, mind you, he was in med line waiting for some bullshit mind-controlling drug ZOG uses to control us, which he will sell to some off-brown race that we as Aryans are supposed to be separated from altogether. All this for a shekel. Does anyone else see the hypocrisy and detriment this causes our Movement?

These actions – and I could name a thousand more examples – are not by any means the actions of someone the Anointed chose to be as a “chosen” race, or a royal priesthood; nor are they the actions of any self-respecting Aryan.

These actions are done by the parasite races that we preach and advocate against. They are examples of how the niggers live and how the illegals live and how the blood-sucking Satan-spawned jews want us to live. These are not the standards that our Master set forth for us to adhere to.

Let’s look at Colossians 3. I will do my best to explain this chapter the best way I know how in order to get my point across. Before I get into that, let’s look at Colossians 2:20-22 (A.S.T.). “If then, you died with the anointed from the elementary teachings of the World Order (we died from these teachings when the seed was first planted and we were re-born as Christians), why are you under its dogmas, as living in the World Order?”²⁰ Do not touch, nor taste, nor handle²¹ those things which are all for mongrelization in the using to the full, according to the precepts and teachings of men.²²”

Now, that means separate yourself from ALL mongrelized thoughts, actions, ideals, teaching, etc. – not just from mongrelizing with other races, but not to mongrelize in thought or action, or race.

Thoughts like, “Oh that bitch is hot” when she’s a J-Lo look-alike, or she has the skin tone of that snake Rihanna, or the close eyed, big nosed look of Lady GaGa, are all mongrelized thoughts. The thoughts of “that CO is a possible mule” is a mongrelized thought. Sitting at a card table with 2 or 3 blue-gummed jungle animals just to earn a few “shekels” is a mongrelized action. Seeking out mind-altering substances and giving what little money we have to mud people is a mongrelized act. None of this behavior is what was intended in 1 Peter 2:9. We are a chosen race – LIVE LIKE ONE!

Chapter 3 of Colossians starts, “If then you were raised with the Anointed (which to me means raised in the Mentality of Separation/Holy Spirit), seek the things above (which I’m pretty sure doesn’t mean to do any of the mongrelized behavior just mentioned) where the Anointed is sitting at the right hand of God.”

So, we are to seek the things above – that means SEEK Godly things; SEEK righteous things, SEEK others of like mind and SEEK the Kingdom of God, NOT that which Satan wants us to seek or seek activities that destroy our wonderful, chosen race. When we do the opposite of what God demands we do in Scripture, do you think that makes God happy? Scripture says otherwise:

“Think of the things above, not the things on Earth, for you died, and your life has been hidden with the anointed in God.”²

We have died: the old man has died, and the new man is to think of the things above because we are hidden with the Anointed. These things on earth: fornication, lust, greed, ego, money, addiction, gangs, prison politics and all the other bullshit Satan throws at us, have absolutely nothing to do with us, the separated, chosen, royal race of Adam. We are cut away from all this worldly debauchery, and we should not stop to entertain any worldly ideas, actions or thoughts.

“By all means, put to death the members which are the earth; whoredom, uncleanness, passion, evil lust and greediness, which is idolatry,”⁵ (put to death means just that: we are new men in the Anointed and all these practices have died, let them stay dead, Brothers.)

“For which things the wrath of God is coming on the sons of disobedience,⁶ Among whom you also then walked, when you were living in these.”⁷

See, the Kingdom of God has no room for such vile acts and behaviors. These are worldly things, and we are no longer of this world but of the Mentality – separated in the mentality of the Anointed.

“But now you also put off all these things: impulsive behavior, anger, blasphemy, dishonorable words out of your mouth.”⁸

Now, I’m not saying I don’t get angry. Nothing makes me more angry than some overzealous CO who thinks it’s their goal in life to micro-manage some petty aspect of our lives, or when I look out and see a so-called Aryan playing cards with a group of jungle people, but I do my best with what I have to quell that anger and focus on the good. That is why salvation is day-by-day.

“Do not lie to one another, having put off the old man with his practices⁹ and having put on the new, being renewed in full knowledge according to the image of the One creating him.”¹⁰

We are not to lie, and in claiming to be Christians and doing these actions that mongrels do, we are hypocrites, liars and no more than a brood of vipers. We must act, live, and behave as Christ implores us to do or we are frauds just as the blood sucking jews who murdered our Savior. We are renewed in mind with the baptism of the Mentality of Separation; but putting off the old man and putting on the new with the regeneration of mentality, we are new men in Christ. We are to live in His image.

Therefore, “Put on, as the chosen of God (God chose us to be separate and to be imitators of Him) those separate and having been loved, deep feelings of compassion (toward your Adamic brethren) kindness, submissiveness of mind, discipline, long suffering,¹² supporting one another, and forgiving yourselves, if any has a complaint against anyone, even as the Master forgave you, so also should you.”¹³

We should as much as is in us, forgive our brethren, not the race mixed, mud people or the jews that murdered our Christ, but only our brothers and this should be done just as the master forgave us, the Adamic race – more proof we should live and behave as close as we can to how Christ did. His circumstances were twice as difficult as ours.

“And above all these things have honorable brotherly love, which is the binding of completeness.”¹⁴ and let the peace of God rule in your hearts (to have peace, or be at peace with God, we must allow ourselves to let Him rule or run our lives and follow the mentality of Separation) to which you truly were called in one body, and be thankful.”¹⁵ We should be more than thankful that we were called into one body. We are the living body of Christ and thanks be to Him who gave His Son for us to live. We owe it to God to live as He demands.

“Let the word of the anointed dwell in you richly, in all wisdom, teaching and exhorting yourselves in psalms and hymns, and songs of the mentality, with favor, singing in your hearts to God.”¹⁶ And everything, whatever you do in word or in action, do all things in the authority of the Master Jesus (Do we really think that doing the works of the diabolical one is doing things in the authority of our Master? We cannot serve two masters; there are no half-assed attempts. You are either for Him or against Him. Let your thoughts, actions, and words be a testament to the Body Politic of which you were chosen) giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”¹⁷

Brothers and Sisters, no one has ever said that living a righteous life would be easy. In fact, Scripture tells us just the opposite. However, the rewards God will bless us with for our works will be well worth it.

As Christians, as racially aware and awake Identity and Separatist Christians, we must not fall into these ploys that Satan uses to turn us from our Master. We must diligently seek the full knowledge of Christ, and we must allow the Mentality to lead us.

I beg all of you to cut yourselves away from all this wretched behavior and be examples to our fellow Adamic Folk. After all, we are the Ambassadors for Christ, and he lives in us. Let's make Him proud.

I hope and pray that all of you who have taken the time to read this received the point I was trying to convey. Our race is in dire straits. Our faith is being perpetrated against, and it is our obligation to stop this travesty. Be a part of the solution, not part of the problem. Live your life separated.

"A free people ought not only to be armed and disciplined, but they should have sufficient arms and ammunition to maintain a status of independence from any who might attempt to abuse them, which would include their own government."

Freedom

— By Sister Hazel German

Freedom. What does that mean really? According to Webster's Dictionary, freedom is “a state of exemption from the power or control of another; liberty; exemption from slavery, servitude or confinement. Freedom is personal, civil, political, and religious.” Later, this definition was updated by Black's Law Dictionary, Abridged Sixth Edition to say “freedom from all restraints except such as are justly imposed by law. Freedom from restraint, under conditions essential to the equal enjoyment of this same right by others; freedom regulated by law.” (emphasis added)

I live in the “free world,” yet my “freedom” is being taken from me little by little. Fortunately, I'm not in a situation of forced integration. Or am I? Let's take a closer look:

If I choose to watch TV, I am forced to watch interracial couples or listen to rap music. It doesn't matter if I watch a western — there's always the token nigger! Action movies seem to always play rap music in the background. Commercials always cater to the negro and the jew. Can't imagine why! HA – only because mainstream media is owned by jews! Lately, I have even noticed the integration of rap into country music! The one genre of music that used to be all White is now infiltrated with black musicians and their culture!

Everywhere I look there's White guilt! From the bumper stickers that say “coexist” (written with symbols of different religions) or “straight but not narrow” or just recently I saw one that says “eracist.” Tolerance = acceptance. Acceptance = integration. Integration = Miscegenation.

Our first responsibility is to Yahweh! I am a Christian Identist, and because I adhere to God's Laws and know my identity and choose to separate from those of other races, as Yahweh commands, I am called a racist, a bigot, a White supremacist. The White race was given Yahweh's blessing to rule over "every living animal that moves upon the Earth." (Gen. 1:26-28.) How can a TRUE Christian "coexist" with those who persecuted Jesus Christ? How can we "coexist" with those who want our Aryan race to die? How can we "coexist" with gays and lesbians – who choose a lifestyle in direct violation of God's Laws? (See Lev. 20:13-16.)

The sole purpose of a legislator is to make "laws." This country was built upon a Christian foundation. Yet, we have Muslims and Jews elected into office by "the people!" In 2006, Keith Ellison, Democrat and Muslim from Minnesota, was sworn into congressional office using the Koran. How many Christian, White Americans actually vote? How many of those do you think actually remember, much less adhere to, God's Laws? I believe – no...I KNOW – they have all been programmed by mainstream media into White guilt. Yahweh gives Adamites dominion over "every living thing on earth." Gen. 1:28. Yet, our Folk have succumbed to Satan's will and have become servants enslaved to mongrels and foreigners! Those who govern us are to be our brethren! See Deut. 17:15; Jer. 30:21. Certainly Keith Ellison is not our brethren – much less Barack Obama!

There are so many "laws" that have been enacted; sometimes, it's hard to keep up! Take, for example, the "law" that you must obtain a marriage license. A marriage license was originally intended for those who were otherwise not legally permitted to marry (interracial couples). By statute, it is "an essential prerequisite to the lawful solemnization of the marriage" in most jurisdictions. What this means is that by obtaining a marriage license, you are asking the state for permission to wed. And because you obtained that marriage license, the state now has authority over your marriage and any children from that marriage. Today, there are several jurisdictions that if your child doesn't attend school or gets into trouble at school, that state is going to fine YOU – the parent – or worse, give YOU – the parent – jail time! So now, instead of having your marriage blessed by Yahweh, as it SHOULD be, your marriage is governed by the laws of the state!!

Those who "govern" us tell us we have civil freedom, i.e., freedom of speech, freedom from discrimination, privacy, etc. Apparently, these civil liberties only apply to non-Whites. In April 2011, a White Christian man in California was arrested for reading the Bible in public. Freedom of speech AND religious liberties were violated! Our privacy liberties were violated by the law signed by George W. Bush – called the Patriot Act. This "law" eased restrictions by giving "law enforcement" agencies the ability to effortlessly search telephone and email communications, medical, financial, and other records. Our current president (a mongrel and Muslim) signed a 4-year extension of the Act in May 2011 of three key provisions: 1) roving wiretaps, 2) searches of business records, and 3) conducting surveillance of "lone wolves." A previous edition of Sacred Nation was delayed because when the editor took it to the copy store, she was told the White clerk was offended by the content and refused to make copies. OUR freedom of speech and freedom from discrimination were violated!!

Potential employers can now "legally" discriminate. They have the ability to run background and financial checks on potential employees. Some employers won't hire a person simply based on financial obligations. And, of course, there's the White man who may pass all the background checks, financial checks, and test high on any applicable employment tests, but because of affirmative action, he is overlooked and a non-White, less competent person is hired. Just look at the federal case entitled Bonenberger vs. The St. Louis Metropolitan Police Department, et al., Case No. 4:12-cv-00021 to read about this discrimination!

Our founding fathers penned the Declaration of Independence as a formal explanation of why Congress had voted to declare independence from Great Britain. (The issue of Parliament's authority in the colonies became a crisis after Parliament passed the Coercive Acts in 1774 to punish the Province of Massachusetts for the Boston Tea Party. Many colonists saw the Coercive Acts as a violation of the British Constitution and thus a threat to the liberties of all of British America.) The famous preamble includes the ideas and ideals that were principles of the Declaration:

"We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal¹, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness. That to secure these rights, Governments are instituted among Men, deriving their just powers from the consent of the governed, That whenever any Form of Government becomes destructive of these ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to abolish it, and to institute new Government, laying its foundation on such principles and organizing its powers in such form, as to them shall seem most likely to effect their Safety and Happiness. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long established should not be changed for light and transient causes; and accordingly all experience hath shewn, that mankind are more disposed to suffer, while evils are sufferable, than to right themselves by abolishing the forms to which they are accustomed. But when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object evinces [show clearly] a design to reduce them under absolute Despotism [tyranny; abuse of power], it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new Guards for their future security."

We must fight for our political and civil freedom!

I have been called a racist. Aw...shucks! I choose to segregate and disassociate. That is my personal choice and my God Given RIGHT!

¹ Keep in mind that "all men" were strictly White men – as our founding fathers understood the Laws of our God Yahweh.

Honor

— By Brother Scotty Girardin, Wartburg, TN

Romans 12:10, "Be kindly affectioned to one another with brotherly love, in honor, preferring one another."

God's Words put "high value" on showing honor. The scriptures tell us to honor the Son and the Father (John 5:23).

We are also commanded to show honor to our birth parents, brothers of our unity/church, and those Adamites outside of our church that are of the same faith (Eph. 6:1-2, 1 Peter 2:17).

One very important way to honor Elohim is by showing proper respect for His Name. After all, we are a people for His name Israel. El = God. It is truly an honor to bear the name of Almighty God – El Shaddai. The prophet Micah said, "For all people will walk everyone in the name of his god, and we will walk in the name of Yahweh our God forever and ever." We "walk in the name of Yahweh" by striving to live each day in a way that reflects well on the name that we bear! As Paul reminded the Adamites in Rome, if we do not live up to the good news we preach, the name of Elohim is blasphemed, brought unto disrepute (Romans 2:21-24).

We honor Yahweh by letting our every day lives become witness to the world (Isaiah 43:1-12). We, today, should be grateful for being of the Adamic race and the privilege of bearing witness to Yahweh and making His name known! We do so because we love Him and for His saving grace. Many times He has picked our people up and carried us, so we should long for His name to be hallowed (holy).

How can we remain from "preaching" when we know the Truth about our Heavenly Father and His Purpose? We should feel as the Apostle Paul when he said, "...for necessity is laid upon me; yea, woe is me if I preach-publish; make known – not the gospel – good news of the Kingdom." (1 Corinthians 9:16.)

King David said, "And they that know thy name will put their trust in you; for You, Yahweh, hast not forsaken them that seek thee" (Psalms 9:10). If we truly know Yahweh and look to His name with respect for what it stands for, we will trust in Him just as did Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Moses and Joshua – His servants of old. Having this same type of faith and trust in Yahweh is a way of showing Him honor. God's Word makes a connection between trusting in Yahweh and respecting Him. When ancient Israel failed to trust in Him, Yahweh asked Moses, "How long will this people provoke me? And how long will it be ere they believe Me, for all the signs which I have showed among them" (Number 14:11).

Yahshua indicated that respect must come from the inner person. Speaking to those whose worship was not sincere, Yahshua said, "This people draw nigh unto Me with their mouth and honor me with their lips; but their heart is far from me" (Matt. 15:8). Sincere respect for Yahweh comes from heartfelt love for Him (1 John 5:3). We also should keep in mind Yahweh's promise: "Those honoring me, I shall honor." (1 Samuel 2:30.)

The apostle Paul told his brothers, "In honor preferring one another" (Romans 12:10). Brothers who hold responsible positions in the "church" should set the example – take the lead – in showing honor to those under their oversight. In that regard, one with responsibilities do well to follow Paul's example (read 1 Thessalonians 2:7-8). Those brothers in the congregations Paul visited knew that he would never ask them to do things that he himself was unwilling to do. Paul showed respect for the brothers and, in turn, he earned theirs!

Another way in which a responsible brother shows respect for those under his oversight is by giving them reasons for the requests he makes or the directives he gives. For instance, when telling His disciples to pray for more workers to be into the harvest, Yahshua told them why. He said, "The harvest is truly plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray you, therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest" (Matthew 9:37-38). When He told His disciples to "watch therefore," He gave them a reason – He said "because you do not know the hour your Lord cometh" (Matthew 24:42).

Time and time again, Yahshua told His disciples not only what they should do, but also why they should do it! In that way, He showed them respect and dignified them. A fine example for all to follow!

Paul wrote, "Rebuke not an Elder, but entreat him as a father, and the younger men as brethren; the Elder woman as a mother; the younger as a sister with all purity. Honor widows that are widows indeed" (1 Timothy 5:1-3). Elohim's Word tells us to honor everyone in the "Christian Congregations," the True Church of God. Not today's churchianity!

What if there is a personal difference between you and your brother? Will that hinder you to carry out your obligation to respect your brother? Never! Those with authority especially should maintain a respectful nature toward their brothers – never "lording it over the flock" (1 Peter 5:3), but as examples!!

Our church is identified by our heartfelt love that exists amongst our brothers. Read John 13:34-35. Of course, we don't just limit our respect toward our church only. Paul wrote to the Christians of his day, "As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all True Christians" (Galatians 6:10). Of the Adamic Caucasian descent!

Granted, applying that principle can be very challenging. At such moments we need to remember the words: "Fret not because of evil doers" (Psalms 37:1). Applying that counsel will help us to respond to those who oppose us. For we are Yahweh's battleaxe – they will bend to our will or perish!

Indeed, whether we are dealing with "our" brothers or those Adamites outside "our" church, we want to strive to apply "honor all men – Adamites – Love the brotherhood, fear Elohim and Honor The King" (1 Peter 2:17).

God Bless and God Speed!

The Synagogue Of Satan - Updated, Expanded, And Uncensored

— By Andrew Carrington Hitchcock

In 2006, Andrew Carrington Hitchcock self-published, "The Synagogue Of Satan." This 60,000 word book was translated by independent publishers into several different languages and subsequently featured on bestseller lists worldwide. Now, five years later, Hitchcock's groundbreaking historical study has been expanded throughout and updated to the end of 2011, forming a chronological encyclopedia of this criminal network which spans over 140,000 words, and features a 30 page index to aid navigation. Included within the wealth of additional information are the complete, "Protocols of the Learned Elders of Zion," together with excerpts from each of the eighty articles that make up Henry Ford's four volume set, "The International Jew," which are presented for the first time in chronological order. Not recommended for the faint-hearted, this is no ordinary book, and no-one who reads it will ever be the same again...

Blueprints for Control Units

— by “Die Hard”

With the explosion of control units in the U.S.A. these days, it is important for members of our White Race [particularly those who are incarcerated] to make themselves aware of the circumstances which our race faces in this environment that favors the minority population and continues to hold the White Race in bondage so as to get us divided rather than united! Do not fool yourself into thinking that all wars are won with violence. The prison administrators are waging a war upon our race with psychological techniques to not only break us down mentally, but to further erode our communication to slow the process of educating the youth of our race whom, unfortunately, get caught up in a system that only wishes to see them return rather than make progress.

The White Race must also acknowledge that the prison administrators want to neutralize our political [and religious] White organization within prison walls by turning us against ourselves while letting the minority races run around preaching the word of Islam and the destruction of the White Race!

Therefore, I appeal to all the White warriors behind the walls, and those who are free to stand strong in the eve of the storm, and network together to serve a common interest for the progression of our people! Heed this warning and educate the youth; knowledge is power and communication is the essence of power!

The below-listed paragraphs were designed in 1962 by a Jew named Dr. Schein for the Federal Bureau of Prison for the use at the first control Unit, Marion. This list was designed [46] years ago, so one can only imagine how much the use of psychological warfare has advanced against prisoners since then.

1. Physical removal of prisoners to areas sufficiently isolated to effectively break or seriously weaken close emotional ties.
2. Segregation of all natural leaders. [We all witness this on a daily basis. A convict who operates on a higher level of cognitive moral development – who generally makes stands against some form of injustice, or speaks out on pro-White issues – is whisked away never to be seen again. Generally labeled – and falsely, at that – as an “STG” member. Natural leaders have influence, and that is not a part of the “rehabilitation” that ZOG has in mind. No, theirs is more in line with the Zimbardo Prison Experiment, where total obedience is preferred regardless of your understanding of rights, law or morality.]
3. Use of cooperative prisoners as leaders. [I know I don't need to elaborate too much at this juncture, but look around you on a daily basis and take note of the “men” who you know to be leaders of actual gangs, or other non-conformist groups, yet they seem to actually thrive in an environment that is supposed to be opposed to their activities. The law overlooks them; they seem to have free run of the prison, and, in many cases, seem to get along quite well with the staff. Now, ask yourself why none of them are White Nationalists and you'll soon realize that what you accredited to your imagination is, in fact, very real. These free run “leaders,” unpersecuted, are in fact cooperative; that's spelled SNITCH.]
4. Prohibition of group activities not in line with brainwashing objectives. [This brings to mind the last time that one of our Christian Identist leaders took our case to Federal Court. It was the habit at that time for the staff to break out the cameras and make a big show of breaking up meetings (church services) on the rec yard. When the issue was heard by the judge, the TDCJ swore that they had never interfered even once with a C.I. meeting on the rec yard. Of course they lied, and, of course, the old judge knew it, but it was all a part of the game played by the courts and the states in the prison game. The old wily judge actually wrote into his unpublished opinion that since Identists were unhampered in their rec yard meetings, he saw no reason to find legitimacy in the claims of our Brother that we were forbidden to meet. THAT is the game plan men. No group activities; it's actually a part of written policy, as you can now see for yourselves.]
5. Spying on prisoners and reporting back private material. [Now, this has been done on a regular basis. So-called gang officers use information right out of your mail to pretend that they are knowledgeable about you or your particular activities or ethos. If a man who calls himself intelligent does not know that his every word is monitored, he is a fool. Knowing this and never forgetting it, he should write his letters accordingly – even when your activities are legal and morally right.]
6. Tricking men into written statements which are then showed to others. [Back “in the game,” as they say here in Texas, there were a different breed of prison administrators who would very quickly put a snitch on the spot by posting his I-60 request form on the bulletin board for everyone to see. Ah, those were the days! But no more. Now, they no longer believe that convicts should police their own...unless it suits their agenda, then when they show the statement, they only do so with a firm grip on it so you cannot actually possess it. After all, trying to get someone #@$& off is an illegal act, and we know our good and noble keepers would never do such a thing.]
7. Exploitation of opportunists and informers. [All I can say is, have you ever seen two men struggle for leadership of some group or other and one of them inexplicably goes to seg, but the other becomes a free run leader???)

8. Convincing prisoners that they can trust no one. [Well, it is somewhat true and hard to debate this one, only to say that we are as much to fault for this belief as the administration because there are a lot of truly untrustworthy groups in prison as well as individuals with bad character. Any group which serves the advancement and education of race and does not ask that you commit illegal acts is hard to find, but they exist for men of true character.]
9. Treating those who are willing to collaborate in far more lenient ways than those who are not.
10. Punishing those who show uncooperative attitudes. [No one is more adept at the subtle art of punishing pro-White activists within the prison context than our keepers and administrators in the Prison Industrial Complex. It does not always come in the form of “free-casing” or set ups. Often it comes in more subtle ways like housing assignments or denial of promotion in class when others with bad cases are given promotions. I have never extorted a man but have been forced to live on an extortion wing with nothing but predators. I have been held in closed and medium custody when I should have never been there. I have on occasion been forced to act out in violence that was totally justified, but in order to get some of that leniency I would have had to do or say something that would go against my core principles. THEY know exactly what the cause is every time, but they demand that you write it down before they’ll give you leniency (see rule #6) so you must take the demotion in class and then allow them to label YOU as aggressive and violent, and so the game self-perpetuates.]
11. Systematic withholding of mail. [Of course this is done! Ever wonder what happened to that letter that your Brother swore he mailed to you? Believe me, it is common practice. How else would the so-called “intelligence” people get hold of information that you don’t have? Or do you ever wonder why sometimes when timing is everything in accomplishing some crucial issue, the mail just seems to get slower and slower? Good ol’ Big Brother. By the way, when they are clearly acting in illegal ways against you, you can bet that each and every piece of your mail is being closely monitored and some withheld.]
12. Preventing contact with anyone non-sympathetic to the method of treatment and regimen of the captive populace. [In other words, throwing out letters to the press, senators, legislators and even family members who may have influence over your circumstance.]
13. Disorganization of all group standards among prisoners. [The way that this is put into action is by continually breaking up and moving groups of men who tend to congregate in racial groups, or in my case, shipping me constantly around the system. I see myself as a sort of metaphorical virus, infecting men and establishing C.I. congregations wherever they ship me. It’s my version of social networking for the church. It’s been effective too. Another way that they break up group norms is by integrated celling and activities; example is in the denial of C.I. church services. Anything that does not meet the multicultural litmus test is done away with.]
14. Building a group conviction among the prisoners that they have been abandoned by and totally isolated from their social order. [This tactic does not work well within Christian Nationalist Movement because it has always been understood among all of our kinsmen, free or incarcerated, that they are not abandoned nor alone.]
15. Undermining all emotional supports.
16. Preventing prisoners from writing home or to friends in the community regarding the condition of confinement.
17. Making available and permitting access to only those publications and books that contain materials which are neutral to or supportive of the desired new attitude. [This is a battle which has long been waged by Identists in regard to religious literature. But I remember well a recent move toward neutralizing prison chapel libraries. This made news in the mainstream press as a move precipitated by the Bush regime and was perceived as a violation of religious freedom, albeit not for the sake of White Christians, but rather sympathetic to both jews and muslims. However, this little move was orchestrated just as any other communist dialectical operation is: on the three steps forward, two steps back tactic. My bet is that while some books were indeed put back, some were never seen again. In fact, though there was no mention of it in the news, the warden on the Hughes Unit in Gatesville, Texas, while I was there, took every single book off of the prison chapel library shelf. These books included books on every faith and were all bought and paid for, then donated, by prisoners. To my knowledge, none of these books were ever replaced – though admittedly, I left the unit several months thereafter. Whatever is not politically correct, Judaized, and anti-White is unacceptable.]
18. Placing individuals into new and ambiguous situations for which the standards are kept deliberately unclear and then putting pressure on them to conform to what is desired in order to win a reprieve from the pressure. [This game only works on men who are actually committed to conforming to the “game” and rehabilitating the system’s way. Men who have been around for a while don’t really care which situation they are placed in because they can survive anywhere and under any condition. Those men who are weak and fainthearted can easily be ruined by such tactics. This is why it is important to choose your company well.]
19. Placing individuals whose willpower has been severely weakened or eroded into a living situation with several others who are more advanced in their thought reform whose job it is to further undermine the individual's emotional supports. [This, we saw with the "scared straight" programs back in the 70s and 80s. It really doesn't work well today though, at least by my reckoning...I saw a group of young thugs brought in to the Eastham Unit where a convict (sic) saw himself as a "scarer" only, when he began to humiliate the young kid, the kid beat the shit out of him! Needless to say, that was the end of the degrade and humiliate program. It's really hard to practice these tactics on hardened drug dealers and men who've been tossed around a system that is nothing less than an education program for criminals. In one case only I can see this operation bearing fruit for the system and that's in conditional parole packages. In these cases, men are placed in exactly such situations and from what I'm told, men do comply and are quite enthusiastic in some cases. One example to be found in the drug rehabilitation programs which are a condition of parole. In this instance, men are sent to an in-prison therapeutic community where this tactic is employed to force them into developing a snitch mentality (cleverly portrayed as holding their peers accountable) and, of course, this is designed to carry over into the free world with them upon release.]

20. Using techniques of character individuation, i.e. humiliations, revilement, shouting, to induce feelings of guilt, fear, and suggestibility; coupled with sleeplessness, and exacting prison regimen and periodic interrogational interviews. [These tactics were used much more within the state context several years ago, but the courts have stifled most of it. However, that does not mean that it is absent from the playbook; we saw some of this recently, albeit in another form with the good folks at Waco, Texas, or in Iraq, or even in Guantanamo Bay, Cuba in interrogation practices. Do not think for a single moment that these same techniques won't be used in the future on resisters to tyranny.]

21. Meeting all insincere attempts to comply with cellmates pressures with renewed hostility. [Never can enough be said about this subject. Somewhere in the mid-90s, Texas began efforts to try to integrate individual cells. In the beginning, the warden would simply ask if you had any problem with people of another race. When you responded in the affirmative, he would list you as racially restricted. In the next couple of years, they began to run these same men back to classification and ask more detailed questions. In most cases, the White men who objected would end up classified as R/B, meaning restricted black.

Again in several months, they were again run, only to have the R/B removed and eventually force housed with negro cellies. In the event that a man refused to house, he was either force housed, or placed in seg. In many cases, myself included, they would pull the old okey doke and knowing that you would refuse housing, they just moved you into an empty house, then move the negro in after that, and knowing that he would never refuse such a move, you just ended up fighting. In those cases, you are labeled a racist aggressor and your chances of ever leaving this place in a reasonable amount of time are severely diminished. In this regard, a man who has no sunlight at the end of his sentence can live free of foreign presence in his cell. But, a man who has a relatively short sentence, and who wants to see his loved ones again, alive, must comply.

In Texas, there is what I call a "must see violence" policy, which holds men who choose to live free of any foreign people in their cell must act in violence in some way in a certain amount of time or their restrictions are lifted (magically rehabilitated). If they choose to act out in violent ways, they remain forever in a situation where they cannot have contact visits, gain parole, spend their own money, or attend school programs, etc. The system is set up to stifle all White expression and dissent. Any rejection of Big Brother's plans are met with hostility.]

22. Renewed pointing out to the prisoner by cell mates of where he has in the past, or is in the present, not been living up to his own standards or values. [This is a tactic still widely used within the White Nationalist prisoner environment to belittle men who are leaders. When it is done by our keepers, it does not have to be legitimate. Accusations may be alluded to or aspersions may be cast at one's character to undermine authority of the leader. In other instances, it is wise to keep yourself clean and clear of bad habits and undignified behaviors because others can, and will, use such things to undermine you as well. In some cases, it may be justified and for this cause we should take a long good look at ourselves. In a case of personal experience, I once had a man whom I respect tell me that smoking was a habit that I should leave alone because others looked to me as a leader and I should be an example. He was right, and while I didn't see it that way at the time, I have since quit smoking for several years now and can clearly see how the addictive habit could be seen as weakness. The point is that we should keep ourselves clear of all negative habits.]

23. Rewarding of submission and subservency to the attitudes encompassing the brainwashing objective with a lifting of pressure and acceptance as a human being. [We've already really dealt with these issues, so there's no need to go on about it other than to say common sense dictates that compliance with their agenda will be rewarded with acceptance...but it is, and will always be, ingenuine, much like the way a snitch is treated.]

24. Providing social and moral supports which reinforces the new attitudes. [Any program by ZOG which is designed to remake or rebuild, whether it be a man or society, must necessarily be reinforced with some sort of follow up support either ideologically or infrastructurally. When it was noticed by the Bush regime that Saddam Hussein's photo was in the cover of each and every text book in Iraq's public school, what was the first thing they (ZOG) did? They replaced that photo with another who was accepted as the new leadership, who, consequently, expected that each and every citizen would thereafter reflect upon the new leader as acceptable and permanent. It's just a phase to brainwashing. So, also, is giving supporting emotional and social reinforcement to you after they've done their work in your mind. It is a form of psychological propaganda, which, as we all know, must be repeated over and over again to be truly effective.]

[Pastor's final note: When I first read this article years ago in Stormwatch, I realized then that it was one which needed repeating every so often to refresh the memories of men as to how the system is set up in very subtle and deceitful ways to not only program you but lie to you and manipulate you into compliance. In all state and federal prisons, it is a matter of policy in the training process to teach new officers to lie, intentionally, to inmates so that they never know the truth. They are taught that you are a liar and never to be trusted, ever. It wasn't always that way. In fact, when I first began doing time in Texas, it was inmates who ran everything, including the counts, gates, cell doors, and, in some cases, even telling officers – who were very few – what to do and not to do. My...how things have changed.

What this brother, Die Hard, says here is true: the standards and tactics have become more developed. Criminal psychology and the corrections business has grown by leaps and bounds and it far exceeds anything that we have presented here. States can now freely share information on national databases which are designed to keep track of all of us on a grand scale. Don't kid yourself for one minute on this matter. One look at the TDCJ website designed for public access will show that such links exist. In the recent case of the RICO statutes being applied to men from California for things that were done in Pennsylvania (or Washington) is only one example.

So-called White supremacist organizations are tracked extensively and that info is shared at functions attended by "intelligence" people within the private and government Prison Industrial Complex. They try to stay one clever step ahead of all of us – no matter that you are legal and above board!! Forget that you are benevolent and pro-race, and anti-drugs and anti-crime. That matters not one whit to these agents of ZOG. All that matters is that you comply with the multi-cult and equalitarian plan that they have for you and your kith and kin. As the Messiah said, "A house divided cannot stand," and it would do us all well to take heed and stay vigilant!]

Every year Fort DeChartres (IL) sponsors the annual French & Indian War Rendezvous the first weekend in June. This year, Pastor Truitt and his wife and daughter attended this event – where White Heritage and the beauty of White Women – is still celebrated! Adamic men and women portray various settlers, farmers, vendors, militia, etc. – including mountain men, Scots, Brits, French and Colonial Americans in the 1750s.

The following photos are just a few that were taken at the festival! We hope you enjoy!

This may be the best analogy yet!

Leave it to Maxine to come up with a solution for the mess that America is now in economically!

I bought a birdfeeder. I hung it on my back porch and filled it with seed. What a beauty of a bird feeder it was, as I filled it lovingly with seed. Within a week, we had hundreds of birds taking advantage of the continuous flow of free and easily accessible food.

But then the birds started building nests in the board of the patio, above the table, and next to the barbecue.

Then came the poop. It was everywhere: on the patio tile, the chairs, the table ... EVERYWHERE!

Then some of the birds turned mean. They would divebomb me and try to peck me even though I had fed them out of my own pocket.

And other birds were boisterous and loud. They sat on the feeder and squawked and screamed at all hours of the day and night and demanded that I fill it when it got low on food.

After a while, I couldn't even sit on my own back porch anymore. So I took down the bird feeder and in three days the birds were gone. I cleaned up their mess and took down the many nests they had built all over the patio.

Soon, the back yard was like it used to be ... quiet, serene...and no one demanding their rights to a free meal!

Now let's see.

Our government gives out free food, subsidized housing, free medical care and free education, and allows anyone born here to be an automatic citizen.

Then the illegals came by the tens of thousands. Suddenly, our taxes went up to pay for free services; small apartments are housing 5 families; you have to wait 6 hours to be seen by an emergency room doctor; your child's second grade class is behind other schools because over half the class doesn't speak English.

Corn Flakes now come in a bilingual box; I have to "press one" to hear my bank talk to me in English; and people waving flags other than "Old Glory" are squawking and screaming in the streets, demanding more rights and free liberties.

Just my opinion, but maybe it's time for the government to take down the birdfeeder!

If you agree, pass it on; if not, just continue cleaning up the poop.

Checks and money order donations may now be made payable to "Sacred Nation." Sacred Nation Ministry is now a legally recognized not-for-profit organization in the State of Missouri.

OUR THANKS!

For all of you who have sent stamps, artwork, articles, and checks, we sincerely appreciate it! Although it costs a lot more to distribute Sacred Nation than we receive in contributions, every little bit that you send helps immensely!

Sacred Nation Ministry hopes to continue to serve the community of incarcerated brethren for many years to come and with the introduction of our website, now we are able to reach your families as well. Remember that there are books, bible studies, articles, and much, much more on the website. We hope you will encourage your family members to visit the site.

Please Read!

Please make note of the new address beginning immediately. Sacred Nation can be reached at 4977 Dwyer Road, St. Charles, Missouri 63301.
